

As a Child, Where'd You Go When You Were Scared?

devotion questions

1. What do you think of when you think of being royalty?
2. Is there an area or areas of your life that you wouldn't want anyone to know about? Aka family secrets?
  - a. Would you confess those things to God and ask Him what He'd like in their place? Make a note about what the Holy Spirit shows you and ask Him to give you the strength to live as the King's kid.
3. What things would you like to crawl into God's lap and talk to Him about? Take a minute and write those things down and then spend some time talking with your Father. After, make a note about what He said, showed you, asked you to do.

4. Are you confident that your relationship with God is secure? Why or why not?

5. What will you ask the Holy Spirit to help you with today? How will this reflect you following Jesus' example?
